- Job Description Logo that can link through to your website.

Hear what our customers have said....

The position advertised for a Reserve Manager, was taken down after almost a thousand page views and 90 inquiries for information packs more than a week before applications were due to close.

Trust chairman Gary Dean said he advertised the job in local and metropolitan newspapers and with JobsOnTheCoast.com.au. By his estimate, “almost 70 per cent” of the applications had come from the website.

When he asked for the job to be taken from the website, Mr Dean said: “Thank you for the opportunity to advertise with you. I certainly will remember that site for the future.”

Norah Head Lighthouse Trust, Chairperson Gary Dean
